

what are closing costs?

Last Updated Wednesday, 30 July 2008

What are closing costs?

Closing costs are the fees for services, taxes or special interest charges that surround the purchase of a home. They include upfront loan points, title insurance, escrow or closing day charges, document fees, prepaid interest and property taxes.

Unless, these charges are rolled into the loan, they must be paid when the home is closed.

Questions about [Profile.market] Real Estate?

Ask us below or Call us Now at [Profile.comp_phone]